Re: In the Matter of Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CG Docket No. 03-123

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Please see the attached complaint information as mandated by the FCC for the State of South Carolina:

- Annual Complaint Log which includes the number of complaints received from June 1, 2004, through May 31, 2005, that allege a violation of the federal TRS mandatory minimum standards, the date of the complaint, the nature of the complaint, the date of its resolution, and the explanation of the resolution.
- Annual Tally Report with total complaints by category.

If any further information is needed, please advise.

Best Regards,

J. Barry Morris
TRS Administrator – South Carolina

Complaint Tracking for SC (06/01/2004-05/31/2005). Total Customer Contacts: 70

Date of Complaint	Nature of Complaint	Date of Resolution	Explanation of Resolution
01/02/05	Customer asked the operator to "Call sister," which is one of the numbers in her frequently dialed list. Customer waited 4 minutes, but the agent did not dial. Customer gave details from her printout. Apologized to customer.	01/03/05	Met with operator on 1/3/05 and coached on the Frequently Dialed list procedure and the dialout time.
01/03/05	TTY user gave # to dial, agent sent "ringing" macro, signal light flashed and TTY user assumed it was transmitting voice instead of TTY. Customer clicked on TTY keys for 6 minutes then was disconnected. Apologized to customer and said that agent's supervisor will be informed for follow up.	01/06/05	Reviewed the disconnect procedures with the operator. Operator understands the procedure.
01/19/05	Customer stated that after giving 800 #, agent kept sending "one moment pls" and would not inform customer on what was going on. Apologized to customer for any inconvenience and stated that this would be taken care of.	01/24/05	Coached the operator on keeping the customers informed.
02/19/05	TTY customer requested to have TTY-40-TTY call set up if there was a tone, but agent typed "(the party has hung up, thanks for using relay services sky)". Customer did not know if the receiver hung up on her or if the operator did. Apologized to the customer and told her I would forward this on to the appropriate supervisor. Customer requested follow up.	02/20/05	Operator put call through with supervisor's assistance. Call was processed according to procedures. Not operator error. Macro automatically scrolls when one of the TTY users hang up. Called customer back and explained that agent is fairly new; that supervisor assisted in the call; and explained the macro. Customer was satisfied and appreciated the quick call back.
02/20/05	The customer states the operator did not keep her informed. Customer gave operator number to call with instructions to ask for someone specific. Operator typed "(thank you, one moment pls)" and 3 minutes later, the operator disconnected the line. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.	02/22/05	Met with operator to review procedures. Called customer back and informed her of the resolution.
02/20/05	Customer said that the typographic errors and xxx's were confusing. Customer made a couple negative comments directed at the operator and redialed. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.	02/23/05	Operator was coached on remaining focused and to type more carefully. Spoke with customer about the resolution and she was satisfied.
02/22/05	Customer said that she was in mid-conversation with end user when the operator interrupted her by tapping on the spacebar. Customer tapped back on the spacebar to indicate she was not finished talking. Customer finished conversation with end user even though the responses were not corresponding to what she had asked. When customer finished the conversation, she typed "GA" but there was no response from the operator for 5 minutes. After she said hello a few times, customer turned on the TTY announcement. She then received garbled messages with a flickering light on her machine. She waited another 5 minutes and hung up because operator did not respond. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and told her a complaint would be filed. Customer requested follow up from a supervisor. Call occurred on 2/22/05, between 1:58PM to 2:15PM.	02/25/05	Operator said that the TTY customer's msg was garbled so she attempted to stop the garbling by pressing the spacebar. The mother said "I have to go answer the door, it's an emergency" then came back while TTY customer was still typing. Opr proceeded to voice what the TTY customer had typed. As opr attempted to tell the TTY user what mother had said, the TTY user typed "hello". Opr attempted to relay two more times but the TTY user kept on typing "hello" then hung up while opr was relaying msg. Correct procedures were followed. Called customer to explain situation, she understood and was satisfied.

02/23/05	SC VCO customer said that operators cannot hear her when she dials 711 or the dedicated SC VCO #: Customer experienced garble. Apologized to customer, referred to LEC for sending the incorrect #, entered TT 2392678, offered AM contact with resolution. Customer requested follow up.		Account Manager called customer via TTY several times over several days, line was either busy or not answered correctly. Called customer via VRS several times over several days, line was either busy or not answered correctly. Called customer via VCO phone to answer. Called the SC TEDP director to contact this customer and to set up a date and time for a TEDP trainer to go to customer's home for proper training on VCO phone usage. Since 5/31/05,
03/06/05	TTY customer said that the operator transferred her to customer service when she didn't request to be. The customer typed "the number is 1 800... am looking for the number right here to speak with live rep hid" then the operator transferred her to Customer Service. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested by supervisor.		Reviewed procedures with the operator. Operator understands correct procedures.	Account Manager communicated with customer via TTY to TTY. Customer is satisfied.
03/07/05	Operator did not follow announcement instructions correctly. Requested follow up. Thanked customer for feedback.	03/09/05	Operator apologized for getting customer's sentence structure turned around and upsetting the caller. Could not contact customer after 3 attempts. Contact closed.
03/10/05	Customer said operator explained relay when there is a note in the database saying not to do so. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer.	03/10/05	Reviewed proper procedures with the operator.
03/11/05	Operator did not wait for "GA" before dialing out. Thanked customer for feedback.	03/11/05	Coached operator on waiting for "GA" before dialing out.
03/11/05	TTY user stated that when she asked operator for his supervisor, he disconnected her.	03/11/05	Coached operator on disconnect procedures.
03/11/05	VCO customer said she cannot dial out LD to daughter when using 711. Customer Service response: Call-in number showed up as different #. Turned in trouble ticket last year on same issue (#1002007627). Problem could not be resolved. Turned in another trouble ticket (#1002428272). Asked customer to call us back but it didn't happen. Customer is confused and disconnected. Called daughter and informed her that the situation was happening again and what was being done about it. Daughter requested follow up.	03/11/05	Identified as a Verizon translation problem. Issue resolved. Followed up with customer, customer satisfied.

04/26/05 Forwarded to technician and Account Manager for follow up.

03/18/05	The operator misdialed due to garbling. When the operator dialed out with the correct number, customer did not follow instructions to get a live representative or for a specific request.	03/18/05	Reviewed proper call procedure with the operator. Operator understands the procedures.
03/18/05	VCO user received garbling from a particular FL number. The other FL number that calls her gets through. Apologized to customer, turned in trouble ticket #002440591. Follow up requested.	05/27/05	Forwarded to IN Account Manager. Accidentally left ticket unassigned, re-assigned so follow up can be done. Technician tested the line and found that the problem was not caused by the relay system. It was caused by the user's end line. Advised the customer to contact the local phone company to have her line checked.
03/28/05	Operator did not wait for "GA" before dialing out. Thanked customer for feedback and said will follow up with operator.	03/28/05	Operator not in error. A "GA" was sent and procedures followed properly.
04/03/05	VCO customer dials 800-735-8583 to reach Relay SC. For the past week she has waited 5-24 minutes before reaching Relay. She has Verizon local. She has printer showing agent IDs, calls are going to same carrier. Once she reaches Relay, the agents are wonderful but she has trouble linking up. Apologized to customer.	04/08/05	Customer did not want a follow up, therefore, further investigation for more information cannot be done. Technician has made 4 attempts to contact customer at the number provided. Technician closed this contact.
04/05/05	TTY customer reports that at end of call, after typing "goodbye" and ready to make another call, the operator used a feature which caused the customer's TTY equipment to flash then to a busy signal. Customer reports this happens often. Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.	04/16/05	Coached operator on proper disconnect procedures. Attempted to call customer back, however, that number has been disconnected.
04/06/05	Customer stated that operator needs to wait for the "GA". Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.	04/06/05	Coached operator on the importance of waiting for the "GA" and following callers' instructions. Operator understands proper procedures. Talked with customer and said that the operator had been coached on the proper procedures. Customer was satisfied.
04/14/05	Customer stated he placed a few calls and talked a long time. Customer was about to place another call when the operator interrupted him while he was giving the operator the number, then the operator hung up on him. Apologized to customer.	05/05/05	Coached the operator on proper procedures. Operator understands proper procedures. Made 3 attempts to contact customer but there was no answer and no answering machine message.

04/17/05	The customer asked for a frequently dialed number. Once connected, the typing was poor; there were many xxx's. At the end of the call, the customer stated she asked for a supervisor. There was no response, so customer asked again. The operator disconnected the call. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.		Coached the operator on correct steps to take in this kind of situation. Operator understands proper procedures. Called customer back and explained that the operator had been coached. Customer satisfied.
04/17/05	TTY customer stated that the operator didn't follow instructions. Customer asked for "T.L.," which the operator did not. Also, the customer asked to speak to a supervisor and after a long pause, the line was disconnected. Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.		Coached the operator on the importance of following customer instructions. Called customer back and said that the operator had been coached on proper procedures. Customer was satisfied.
04/21/05	Customer said that when she gave the operator a number to dial, the operator was rude and disconnected without processing the call. Apologized to customer.	04/25/05	No follow up was requested, therefore, further investigation will not be implemented. However, reviewed with operator on proper procedures. Operator understands correct procedures.
04/22/05	VCO customer reported that she has been having trouble all morning with her calls being disconnected. One of the most recent calls disconnected before the operator outdated. Customer Service response: Apologized for the inconvenience and thanked the customer for the feedback. Told customer that a trouble ticket would be entered (# 1002510907).	05/31/05	Forwarded to SC Account Manager. From the Account Manager: Follow up was not requested, however, Sprint recommended that the customer "...try dialling the special VCO number 877-735-8263 for a few days to see if the problem still persists." Since 5/31/05, this customer has not called back to mention VCO connection problems.
05/11/05	VCO user said that the agent outdated the number wrong 5 times and on 6th time, customer received a message that the call would not go through and to call Directory Assistance. Customer said that it took 30-60 minutes to get the call through. Apologized to customer for the inconvenience.	05/11/05	Note from Holyoke: ID number 2844 is not assigned to any operator in our center.
05/15/05	Voice customer said that when he placed a call to his deaf relative, the operator typed in parentheses to the deaf relative "(please repeat)" which resulted in the deaf relative to become confused and ending the call. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and referred him to the	05/18/05	Corrected call center information. Operator remembers this call. There were technical difficulties on both ends. The agent's headset was not functioning and was replaced. In addition, the VCO customer said she was not getting the typed messages that were being sent. The operator informed the voice caller that the VCO user was not getting the messages.

05/15/05		Voice customer said that the supervisor was rude and not helpful after a stressful situation with an operator. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and referred them to the Account Manager.	05/17/05	Customer a voice end user. Asked opt to repeat part of earlier conversation. Opt typed this to TTY user. TTY user typed "SKSK" in response. Voice user asked to speak to supervisor. Opt typed this to TTY user. TTY user typed "SKSK" and hung up. (Supervisor was observing the original call at this time.) Call disconnected after TTY user hung up. Voice user called back and requested supervisor. Supervisor explained procedures the opt had to follow. Customer did not agree w/ procedures. Supervisor apologized and offered to take a complaint, but customer didn't want to file w/ supervisor. Supervisor gave customer Customer Service #.
05/24/05	05/24/05	Customer said while the operator was typing, customer pressed the spacebar to interrupt. However, there was no indication on the screen that there was an interruption. Informed customer that a trouble ticket would be filed out.	05/24/05	Trouble Ticket #1002575263	Spoke with customer for 45 mins. Customer is fairly new to relay and had several questions which were answered. Customer doesn't have an issue with relay, she has one with her mother who never remembers to say "na"

07/31/04	VCO customer reports that when she asked operator to hold while she looked for another # to dial and came back on the line 30 seconds later, the operator had already disconnected her. VCO customer requested to speak with supervisor. Supervisor assisted, apologized to the customer and said that supervisor will follow up with the operator.	07/31/04	Operator states that she forgot to open the headset when the end user disconnected the call so she did not hear the VCO user say "hold." When operator realized headset was not on, she immediately turned it on, but there was no response, so she disconnected the line. Operator was coached on proper VCO procedures and disconnect procedures.
08/02/04	Per TTY user's request, opr placed call and asked for a specific person. The end user said that the requested person was not there and if they could take a msg. TTY user said that before she could give the msg, opr was explaining relay and sent "At 0". TTY customer asked the opr why that was done and opr responded "Opr. no longer has that info." TTY customer thought the opr had disconnected the call.	08/02/04	Explained to customer that the operator is required to explain relay unless otherwise instructed by the TTY user. Thanked her for the comments. Spoke with operator, coached operator on the correct procedure for specific person calls and the importance of keeping the TTY user informed. Operator understood correct procedures.
08/06/04	Customer said that the operator didn't type clearly. Customer was trying to discuss medications with a nurse and the information didn't come through clearly.	08/06/04	Spoke to operator, operator admitted to not asking the nurse to spell out names of medications. Coached operator on proper pacing procedures and the importance of asking the voice user to spell out difficult-to-understand words.
08/13/04	TTY customer said that the operator kept asking the doctor's office staff member to repeat what was being said. Customer said that the operator was not typing what was being said.	08/13/04	Apologized to the customer and explained that if the voice person is talking too fast, for the customer to instruct the operator to type verbatim if the operator asks the voice user to repeat. Customer notes show an alternate announcement for relay. Operator was instructed to always ask about familiarity of the service if an alternate announcement is given.

08/16/04	Operator did not follow customer's directions. VCO customer wanted to leave a message on the voice machine and the operator did not allow customer to do so.	08/20/04	Reviewed with the operator on the importance of following the procedures for VCO calls and following customers' instructions.
08/17/04	Customer said that operator was rude, operator hung up on customer when customer wanted to leave a message on the answering machine.	08/17/04	Asked operator to demonstrate VCO calls to an answering machine. Operator was able to do so. Operator remembers this call and stated that he waited over 5 minutes for a response from the VCO customer then disconnected the line.
08/18/04	VCO customer was unable to reach the end user since a system interrupts her call for billing information.	12/08/04	Apologized to customer for the problem. Checked to verify customer phone number is selected with ATT as COC and everything appears to be in the system. Entered TT #0007627 Internal update performed.
10/14/04	TTY customer said that the operator disconnected the call in mid-conversation. Customer called again and talked with a supervisor and the supervisor didn't provide an ID number. Also that the supervisor had hung up on the customer. Thanked customer for feedback and said that this will be communicated with the supervisors.	10/16/04	Proper call procedures were discussed with the operator; however, there were several random dropped calls on this day/night. For each dropped call, the Force department was notified.
10/20/04	Customer tried to interrupt operator by clicking on the speaker but operator did not acknowledge this. Customer said that she wanted to speak with this operator's supervisor but operator transferred her to Customer Service instead.	10/26/04	Informed operator's supervisor of this situation. Operator was coached on the importance of following customers' instructions; and the operator was reminded to not transfer customers unless requested.
10/23/04	TTY customer said that she instructed the operator to use the frequent dial feature to ask for a specific person and not to repeat the name. Also that the call did not flow smoothly. Apologized to customer and thanked her for the feedback. Told customer that her feedback will be forwarded to the supervisor.	10/23/04	Supervisor assisted with this call. Customer requested a follow up.	12/28/04	On this date there was a technical problem within the center which caused several of our calls to be disconnected. Unable to do follow up because there was no information given to contact the customer.

Date of Complaint	Nature of Complaint	Date of Resolution	Explanation of Resolution
01/02/05	Customer asked the operator to "Call sister," which is one of the numbers in her frequently dialed list. Customer waited 4 minutes, but the agent did not dial. Customer gave details from her printout. Apologized to customer.	01/03/05	Met with operator on 1/3/05 and coached on the Frequently Dialed list procedure and the dialout time.
01/03/05	TTY user gave # to dial, agent sent "ringing" macro, signal light flashed and TTY user assumed it was transmitting voice instead of TTY. Customer clicked on TTY keys for 6 minutes then was disconnected. Apologized to customer and said that agent's supervisor will be informed for follow up.	01/06/05	Reviewed the disconnect procedures with the operator. Operator understands the procedure.
01/19/05	Customer stated that after giving 800 #, agent kept sending "one moment pls" and would not inform customer on what was going on. Apologized to customer for any inconvenience and stated that this would be taken care of.	01/24/05	Coached the operator on keeping the customers informed.
02/19/05	TTY customer requested to have TTY-to-TTY call set up if there was a tone, but agent typed "(the party has hung up, thanks for using relay services sk)". Customer did not know if the receiver hung up on her or if the operator did. Apologized to the customer and told her I would forward this on to the appropriate supervisor. Customer requested follow up.	02/20/05	Operator put call through with supervisor's assistance. Call was processed according to procedures. Not operator error. Macro automatically scrolls when one of the TTY users hang up. Called customer back and explained that agent is fairly new; that supervisor assisted in the call; and explained the macro. Customer was satisfied and appreciated the quick call back.
02/20/05	The customer states the operator did not keep her informed. Customer gave operator number to call with instructions to ask for someone specific. Operator typed "(thank you, one moment pls)" and 3 minutes later, the operator disconnected the line. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.	02/22/05	Met with operator to review procedures. Called customer back and informed her of the resolution.
02/20/05	Customer said that the typographic errors and xxx's were confusing. Customer made a couple negative comments directed at the operator and redialled. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.	02/23/05	Operator was coached on remaining focused and to type more carefully. Spoke with customer about the resolution and she was satisfied.
02/22/05	Customer said that she was in mid-conversation with end user when the operator interrupted her by tapping on the spacerbar. Customer tapped back on the spacerbar to indicate she was not finished talking. Customer finished conversation with end user even though the responses were not corresponding to what she had asked. When customer finished the conversation, she typed "GA" but there was no response from the operator for 5 minutes. After she said hello a few times, customer turned on the TTY announcement. She then received garbled messages with a flickering light on her machine. She waited another 5 minutes and hung up because operator did not respond. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and told her a complaint would be filed. Customer requested follow up from a supervisor. Call occurred on 2/22/05, between 1:58PM to 2:15PM.	02/25/05	Operator said that the TTY customer's msg was garbled so she attempted to stop the garbling by pressing the spacerbar. The mother said "I have to go answer the door, it's an emergency" then came back while TTY customer was still typing. Opr proceeded to voice what the TTY customer had typed. As opr attempted to tell the TTY user what mother had said, the TTY user typed "hello". Opr attempted to relay two more times but the TTY user kept on typing "hello" then hung up while opr was relaying msg. Correct procedures were followed. Called customer to explain situation, she understood and was satisfied.

Followed up with customer by mail and apologized for the inconvenience.
07/25/04	Customer said he had already spoken to the center manager about how operators should not be allowed to make decisions for customers. Customer said that the operator dialed the wrong number. Told customer the supervisor will follow up with the operator.		07/25/04	Discussed with operator. Determined that the operator had followed correct procedures, but coached operator again.
07/31/04	VCO customer reports that when she asked operator to hold while she looked for another # to dial and came back on the line 30 seconds later, the operator had already disconnected her. VCO customer requested to speak with supervisor. Supervisor assisted, apologized to the customer and said that supervisor will follow up with the operator.		07/31/04	Operator states that she forgot to open the headset when the end user disconnected the call so she did not hear the VCO user say "hold." When operator realized headset was not on, she immediately turned it on, but there was no response, so she disconnected the line. Operator was coached on proper VCO procedures and disconnect procedures.
08/02/04	Per TTY user's request, opr placed call and asked for a specific person. The end user said that the requested person was not there and if they could take a msg, TTY user said that before she could give the msg, opr was explaining msg. TTY user said that before she could give the msg, opr was explaining relay and sent "Alt 0". TTY customer asked the opr why that was done and opr responded "Opr, no longer has that info." TTY customer thought the opr had disconnected the call.		08/02/04	Explained to customer that the operator is required to explain relay unless otherwise instructed by the TTY user. Thanked her for the comments. Spoke with operator, coached operator on the correct procedure for specific person calls and the importance of keeping the TTY user informed. Operator understood correct procedures.
08/06/04	Customer said that the operator didn't type clearly. Customer was trying to discuss medications with a nurse and the information didn't come through clearly.		08/06/04	Spoke to operator, operator admitted to not asking the nurse to spell out names of medications. 08/13/04	TTY customer said that the operator kept asking the doctor's office staff member to repeat what was being said. Customer said that the operator was not typing what was being said.		08/13/04	Apologized to the customer and explained that if the voice person is talking too fast, for the customer to instruct the operator to type verbatim if the operator asks the voice user to repeat. Customer notes show an alternate announcement for relay. Operator was instructed to always ask about familiarity of the service if an alternate announcement is given.

08/16/04	Operator did not follow customer's directions. VCO customer wanted to leave a message on the voice machine and the operator did not allow customer to do so.	08/20/04	Reviewed with the operator on the importance of following the procedures for VCO calls and following customers' instructions.
08/17/04	Customer said that operator was rude; operator hung up on customer when customer wanted to leave a message on the answering machine.	08/17/04	Asked operator to demonstrate VCO calls to an answering machine. Operator was able to do so. Operator remembers this call and stated that he waited over 5 minutes for a response from the VCO customer then disconnected the line.
08/18/04	VCO customer was unable to reach the end user since a system interrupts her call for billing information.	12/08/04	Apologized to customer for the problem. Checked to verify customer phone number is selected with ATT as COC and everything appears to be in the system. Entered TT #2007627 Internal update performed.
10/14/04	TTY customer said that the operator disconnected the call in mid-conversation. Customer called again and talked with a supervisor and the supervisor didn't provide an ID number. Also that the supervisor had hung up on the customer. Thanked customer for feedback and said that this will be communicated with the supervisors.	10/16/04	Proper call procedures were discussed with the operator; however, there were several random dropped calls on this day/night. For each dropped call, the Force department was notified.
10/20/04	Customer tried to interrupt operator by clicking on the spacebar but operator did not acknowledge this. Customer said that she wanted to speak with this operator's supervisor but operator transferred her to Customer Service instead.	10/26/04	Informed operator's supervisor of this situation. Operator was coached on the importance of following customers' instructions; and the operator was reminded to not transfer customers unless requested.
10/23/04	TTY customer said that she instructed the operator to use the frequent dial feature to ask for a specific person and not to repeat the name. Also that the call did not flow smoothly. Apologized to customer and thanked her for the feedback. Told customer that her feedback will be forwarded to the supervisor.	10/23/04	Supervisor assisted with this call. Operator followed all call procedures and customer instructions. Attempted to return the call 3 times but , but there was no answer.
10/24/04	TTY customer said that the operator was not a skillful typist. Customer Service response: Apologized to the customer.	10/25/04	Met with operator, coached operator on the importance of focusing on all calls and correcting typos.

10/25/04	Customer said that the operator didn't use the mute button. While the customer waited for her daughter's response, the operator whistled in her ears, spoke in a very low, deep voice; and she could hardly understand him. Operator breathed heavily as though bored. Apologized to customer.	10/25/04	Coached operator on remaining professional.

10/26/04	10/26/04	Coached operator. Called customer back, said that the operator had been coached.	10/26/04	Internal update performed.
10/28/04	10/28/04	TTY customer made a call to a hearing person who wasn't familiar with relay. Told the person to hang up. Customer wanted to make another call but after several minutes and typing "hello" 3 times, the operator never got back on the line. Thanked customer for the information and told the customer that the	10/28/04	Reviewed proper procedures with the operator.
11/19/04	11/22/04	TTY customer asked to speak to supervisor regarding operator's poor typing skills whereupon the operator referred to customer by name. This familiarity made customer uncomfortable. Apologized to customer and said that this info will be passed to the supervisor for coaching the operator. Also said that a supervisor will follow up with the customer.	11/22/04	Supervisor emphasized to opr to refrain from breaking transparency by using the caller's name, and to forward customers' request to speak w/ a higher authority. Explained to opr to seek assistance from a supervisor and not to say that no one is available. Left a msg for the caller, explained that the proper procedures were reviewed with the opr.
11/22/04	11/22/04	Customer was displeased with the operator's typing skills. The operator typed "liver person" instead of "live person." The customer stated the operator needs to be more professional and not to abbreviate names. Thanked the customer for feedback and assured that a supervisor will follow up with the customer.	11/22/04	Spoke with operator about increasing typing speed/accuracy. Advised the operator if the TTY user or other callers say a specific name, to type that specific name and not to assume responsibility for abbreviating unless it is an acceptable abbreviation. Called customer back and informed her that operator had been coached. Apologized for the confusion.
11/29/04	11/29/04	Customer said that operator was very slow in relaying the typed message. The end user also commented that the call speed was unusually slow. She said when another operator handled the call it went more smoothly. Apologized for the problem. Advised customer that operator will be coached.	11/29/04	Internal update performed.
11/29/04	11/29/04	Operator typed to customer, "The numbers had dated out, the party has hung up. Thank you, sksk," and disconnected. The opr didn't let the customer request a redial or to inquire what went on. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer. Requested follow up.	11/29/04	Internal update performed.	This number is invalid for that call center. Called customer and received a busy signal. Called 4 days later, the customer hung up due to garble. Called 3 days later, informed customer there is no operator with that number at this center. Customer thought she may have had the wrong number. Customer satisfied.
12/01/04	12/02/04	Customer said the operator hung up after saying the end user hung up. Thanked customer and said that I would forward the comments to operators supervisor.	12/02/04	Internal update performed.	Coached operator on disconnect procedure when the end user hangs up first. Operator acknowledged procedure and understands the importance of waiting for a response.

12/04/04	Customer said that the end user did not disconnect the call but put her hand over the receiver and accidentally hit a button. However, the opr sent a "hung up" macro. Customer asked opr to redial and there was no response from the opr. After about 5 minutes, the customer asked again for the redial but after a few minutes, the line was disconnected.	12/30/04	Ticket was opened on 12/4 and resolved on 12/30. Therefore, this ticket is closed.
12/09/04	Customer gave number to operator but recording gave new number. Customer asked to dial new number. Child answered the phone, operator announced relay and child hung up. Customer thought operator dialed wrong number.	12/09/04	Operator typed to customer what the recording said. Customer said "thank you, relay, sksk" and disconnected.
12/09/04	The customer said that the operator incorrectly typed specific person request, so customer had to interrupt operator to clarify the correct name. Apologized to customer.	12/09/04	Internal update performed. Supervisor coached the operator on the importance of properly requesting a specific person per customer request.
12/10/04	TTY customer said that the operator disconnected her in the middle of the call. Customer Service response: Apologized for the handling of the call.	12/10/04	Internal update performed. No operator with that ID.
12/10/04	TTY user said that the operator disconnected after the customer requested to look up a number. Apologized to the customer and said that the supervisor will be informed for follow up.	01/03/05	Coached operator on the importance of not disconnecting calls. Called customer back and apologized for this situation and informed her that operator had been coached.
12/11/04	Customer said that the operator hung up on customer after saying that the end user had hung up. Thanked customer and said I would forward comments to the operator's supervisor.	12/11/04	Internal update performed. Asked operator to demonstrate proper procedure for closing a call. Operator did correctly.
12/18/04	TTY customer said that the operator didn't type after he was given a phone number. The customer saw her TTY signal light flashing and had to keep retransmitting herself.	12/18/04	Unable to resolve because as of the date of this complaint, this operator number is no longer active.
12/21/04	Customer reported that the operator did not wait for "GA" before dialing out. Thanked customer for feedback. Customer requested follow up.	12/21/04	Coached operator on the importance of waiting for the customer to give "GA" before dialing out. Called customer and informed her that the operator had been coached. Customer was satisfied.
12/25/04	Operator did not allow customer to leave a message on an answering machine and hung up on the customer. Thanked customer for the information and said this comment would be forwarded to the appropriate person.	12/27/04	Spoke with the operator. Reviewed proper procedures for leaving a message with a VCO user and operator correctly listed the steps.

12/27/04	Customer said that she is disconnected from relay rather frequently. She said it used to be just an occasional problem but now it has become frequent and would like to know what is causing this problem. Apologized to customer for the issue. Customer requested follow up from the Account Manager.	12/31/04	Account Manager called customer via TTY. Met with customer in person on 1/25/05. Explained Relay to customer. Customer satisfied.
12/28/04	TTY customer said that the operator disconnected the call while she was making a call. Customer requested a follow up.	12/28/04	On this date there was a technical problem within the center which caused several of our calls to be disconnected. Unable to do follow up because there was no information given to contact the customer.

Date of Complaint	Nature of Complaint	Date of Resolution	Explanation of Resolution
01/02/05	Customer asked the operator to "Call sister," which is one of the numbers in her frequently dialed list. Customer waited 4 minutes, but the agent did not outdial. Customer gave details from her printout. Apologized to customer.	01/03/05	Met with operator on 1/3/05 and coached on the Frequently Dialed list procedure and the dialout time.
01/03/05	TTY user gave # to dial, agent sent "ringing" macro, signal light flashed and TTY user assumed it was transmitting voice instead of TTY. Customer clicked on TTY keys for 6 minutes then was disconnected. Apologized to customer and said that agent's supervisor will be informed for follow up.	01/06/05	Reviewed the disconnect procedures with the operator. Operator understands the procedure.
01/19/05	Customer stated that after giving 800 #, agent kept sending "one moment pls" and would not inform customer on what was going on. Apologized to customer for any inconvenience and stated that this would be taken care of.	01/24/05	Coached the operator on keeping the customers informed.
02/19/05	TTY customer requested to have TTY-to-TTY call set up if there was a tone, but agent typed "(the party has hung up, thanks for using relay services sk)". Customer did not know if the receiver hung up on her or if the operator did. Apologized to the customer and told her I would forward this on to the appropriate supervisor. Customer requested follow up.	02/20/05	Operator put call through with supervisor's assistance. Call was processed according to procedures. Not operator error. Macro automatically scrolls when one of the TTY users hang up. Called customer back and explained that agent is fairly new; that supervisor assisted in the call; and explained the macro. Customer was satisfied and appreciated the quick call back.
02/20/05	The customer states the operator did not keep her informed. Customer gave operator number to call with instructions to ask for someone specific. Operator typed "(thank you, one moment pls)" and 3 minutes later, the operator disconnected the line. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.	02/22/05	Met with operator to review procedures. Called customer back and informed her of the resolution.
02/20/05	Customer said that the typographic errors and xxxx's were confusing. Customer made a couple negative comments directed at the operator and redialed. Apologized to customer. 02/22/05	Customer said that she was in mid-conversation with end user when the operator interrupted her by tapping on the spacebar. Customer tapped back on the spacebar to indicate she was not finished talking. Customer finished conversation with end user even though the responses were not corresponding to what she had asked. When customer finished the conversation, she typed "GA" but there was no response from the operator for 5 minutes. After she said hello a few times, customer turned on the TTY announcement. She then received garbled messages with a flickering light on her machine. She waited another 5 minutes and hung up because operator did not respond. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and told her a complaint would be filed. Customer requested follow up from a supervisor. Call occurred on 2/22/05, between 1:58PM to 2:15PM.	02/25/05	Operator said that the TTY customer's msg was garbled so she attempted to stop the garbling by pressing the spacebar. The mother said "I have to go answer the door, it's an emergency" then came back while TTY customer was still typing. Opr proceeded to voice what the TTY customer had typed. As opr attempted to tell the TTY user what mother had said, the TTY user typed "hello". Opr attempted to relay two more times but the TTY user kept on typing "hello" then hung up while opr was relaying msg. Correct procedures were followed. Called customer to explain situation, she understood and was satisfied.

02/23/05	SC VCO customer said that operators cannot hear her when she dials 711 or the dedicated SC VCO #. Customer experienced garble. Apologized to customer, referred to LEC for sending the incorrect #, entered TT 2392678, offered Aft contact with resolution. Customer requested follow up.		Account Manager called customer via TTY several times over several days, line was either busy or not answered correctly. Called customer via interpreter and customer was not able to correctly use her VCO phone to answer. Called the SC TEDP director to contact this customer and to set up a date and time for a TEDP trainer to go to customer's home for proper training on VCO phone usage. Since 5/31/05,
03/06/05	TTY customer said that the operator transferred her to customer service when she didn't request to be. The customer typed "the number is 1 800...1 am looking for the number right here to speak with live rep rhd" then the operator transferred her to Customer Service. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested by supervisor.	03/11/05	Reviewed procedures with the operator. Operator understands correct procedures. Account Manager communicated with customer via TTY to TTY. Customer is satisfied.
03/07/05	Operator did not follow announcement instructions correctly. Requested follow up. Thanked customer for feedback.	03/09/05	Operator voiced announcement correctly but incorrectly typed back to the TTY user. Operator apologized for getting customer's sentence structure turned around and upsetting the caller. Could not contact customer after 3 attempts. Contact closed.

03/11/05	VCO customer said she cannot dial out LD to daughter when using 711. Customer Service response: Call-in number showed up as different #: Turned in trouble ticket last year on same issue (#1002007627). Problem could not be resolved. Turned in another trouble ticket (#1002428272). Asked customer to call us back but it didn't happen. Customer is confused and disoriented. Called daughter and informed her that the situation was happening again and what was being done about it. Daughter requested follow up.	03/11/05	Identified as a Verizon translation problem. Issue resolved. Followed up with customer, customer satisfied.

04/26/05 Forwarded to technician and Account Manager for follow up.

03/18/05	The operator misdialed due to garbling. When the operator dialed out with the correct number, customer did not follow instructions to get a live representative or for a specific request.	03/18/05	Reviewed proper call procedure with the operator. Operator understands the procedures.
03/18/05	VCO user received garbling from a particular FL number. The other FL number that calls her gets through. Apologized to customer, turned in trouble ticket #1002440591. Follow up requested.	05/27/05	Forwarded to IIN Account Manager.
03/26/05	Operator did not wait for "GA" before dialing out. Thanked customer for feedback and said will follow up with operator.	03/26/05	Operator not in error. A "GA" was sent and procedures followed properly.
04/03/05	VCO customer dials 800-735-8583 to reach Relay SC. For the past week she has waited 5-24 minutes before reaching Relay. She has Verizon local. She has printer showing agent IDs, calls are going to same center. Once she reaches Relay, the agents are wonderful but she has trouble linking up. Apologized to customer.	04/08/05	Customer did not want a follow up, therefore, further investigation for more information cannot be done. Technician has made 4 attempts to contact customer at the number provided. Technician closed this contact.
04/05/05	TTY customer reports that at end of call, after typing "goodbye" and ready to make another call, the operator used a feature which caused the customer's TTY equipment to flash then to a busy signal. Customer reports this happens often. Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.	04/16/05	Coached operator on proper disconnect procedures. Attempted to call customer back, however, that number has been disconnected.
04/06/05	Customer stated that operator needs to wait for the "GA". Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.	04/06/05	Coached operator on the importance of waiting for the "GA" and following callers' instructions. Operator understands proper procedures.
04/14/05	Customer stated he placed a few calls and talked a long time. Customer was about to place another call when the operator interrupted him while he was giving the operator the number, then the operator hung up on him. Apologized to customer.	05/05/05	Coached the operator on proper procedures. Operator understands proper procedures. Made 3 attempts to contact customer but there was no answer and no answering machine message.

04/17/05	The customer asked for a frequently dialed number. Once connected, the typing was poor; there were many xxx's. At the end of the call, the customer stated she asked for a supervisor. There was no response, so customer asked again. The operator disconnected the call. Apologized to customer. Follow up requested.			Coached the operator on correct steps to take in this kind of situation. Operator understands proper procedures. Called customer back and explained that the operator had been coached. Customer satisfied.
04/17/05	TTY customer stated that the operator didn't follow instructions. Customer asked for "T.L.," which the operator did not. Also, the customer asked to speak to a supervisor and after a long pause, the line was disconnected. Apologized to customer. Customer requested follow up.			Coached the operator on the importance of following customer instructions. Called customer back and said that the operator had been coached on proper procedures. Customer was satisfied.
04/21/05	Customer said that when she gave the operator a number to dial, the operator was rude and disconnected without processing the call. Apologized to customer.			No follow up was requested, therefore, further investigation will not be implemented. However, reviewed with operator on proper procedures. Operator understands correct procedures.
04/22/05	VCO customer reported that she has been having trouble all morning with her calls being disconnected. One of the most recent calls disconnected before the operator outdated. Customer Service response: Apologized for the inconvenience and thanked the customer for the feedback. Told customer that a trouble ticket would be entered (#1002510907).	05/31/05	Forwarded to SC Account Manager.	From the Account Manager: Follow up was not requested, however, Sprint recommended that the customer "...try dialing the special VCO number 877-735-8263 for a few days to see if the problem still persists." Since 5/31/05, this customer has not called back to mention VCO connection problems.
05/11/05	VCO user said that the agent outdated the number wrong 5 times and on 6th time, customer received a message that the call would not go through and to call Directory Assistance. Customer said that it took 30-60 minutes to get the call through. Apologized to customer for the inconvenience.	05/11/05	Note from Holyoke: ID number 2844 is not assigned to any operator in our center.
05/15/05	Voice customer said that when he placed a call to his deaf relative, the operator was mumbling. Customer asked operator to repeat but instead, the operator typed in parentheses to the deaf relative ("please repeat") which resulted in the deaf relative to become confused and ending the call. Customer Service response: Apologized to customer and referred him to the	05/18/05	Corrected call center information. Operator remembers this call. There were technical difficulties on both ends. The agent's headset was not functioning and was replaced. In addition, the VCO customer said she was not getting the typed messages that were being sent. The operator informed the voice caller that the VCO user was not getting the messages.
